More independence, greater financial security and a better quality of life with CalABLE

- Eligible individuals, family, friends, and employers can contribute up to $15,000 a year without affecting the account beneficiary’s public disability benefits. ABLE beneficiaries who work can contribute even more to their accounts.

- If you receive SSI benefits, you can save as much as $100,000 in your account with no effect on federal and California state benefits.

- Best of all, earnings on qualified withdrawals from a CalABLE account are federal and California state tax-free.

- Choose among four savings and investment choices, ranging from FDIC-Insured to Aggressive Growth.

Savings in a CalABLE account can be used for many different disability-related expenses including:

- Education
- Housing
- Transportation
- Employment Support
- Health, Prevention, and Wellness
- Assistive Technology and Personal Support

More possibilities than ever before

Now ABLE-eligible individuals and their families can save and invest for the future with no impact on their public disability benefits.

That’s all within reach since the Achieving a Better Life Experience (ABLE) Act was passed into law, making CalABLE possible.
